'New' Salty's melds high-end smarts, good seafood

Funny how things change. At one time, the Marriott in Colonie boasted one of the best fine dining spots in the Capital Region: Ashley's.

How often have you been to this restaurant? I'm a regular

How long did you wait for a table? No wait

Noise level: Normal conversation

Quality of food: Excellent

Quality of service: Good

Comments: The new Salty's is the place to go if you want excellent food. We go there regularly. John(the new owner) and the rest of the staff are very friendly. We normally sit at the bar and eat there. We waited for a table on a Sat. night for less than 30min. To me, that's not bad at all on a Sat. night.

Comments: We have been going to Salty's for years and always enjoyed it. Since the new owner took over, it has only gotten better and each time we go, we are amazed. The menu gives you choices from wonderful appetizers to great desserts. You can get a light meal or a great steak. The seafood is as fresh as you can get. Everyone should try the New Salty's and you will go back again and again.

Comments: When I go out to dinner, I expect good service and a delicious meal - as any diva would - as anyone should! My expectations were met and exceeded at the New Salty's! I was very happy to see the new, exciting menu with so many choices that I had a hard time making up my mind. I ended up choosing the Crabmeat Risotto and my companion chose the Crablegs. Not only were our meals scrumptuously delicious, but we didn't have to worry about cracking open our crablegs (a chore that many times prevents me from ordering the delectable legs). Having our crableg shells split open for us and lightly seasoned with breadcrumbs and garlic was an added treat! I have been
